FRIDAY EVENING AUGUST 8.

THE DEADLY PIG-FACED FISH. - Bill Bent has a piscatorial curiosity which, though common enough where this prize was captured, has never been seen before in this city, says the San Francisco Chronicle. It is called the "pig" fish from its similarity in facial expression to the pig. Bent's "porker" was captured by one of the officers on the United States steamship Ranger, about one hundred miles south of San Diego, where the fish are said to abound. The curio in question measures about a foot in length, is round in the body and is the image of a pig in the face. Near the head on either side is a fin that does not look unlike the foreleg of a pig. Directly in front is the eye, and the head extends into a short shout which contains four solid teeth, which closely resemble the human molars. Although the fish are common in the section where this one was caught, no one among the many who have examined the specimen ever saw one before. The fish are poisonous, and their bite, it is said, means certain death.

The three legged mare at Avendale Stock Farm, near West Chester, Pa, is dead. She was a valuable brood suimal, and having met with an accident while in foal one of her legs was amputated and an artificial one made. She hobbled about on this for a long time and was an object of great inter-

As an instance of what risks natives em ployed at the diamond-diggings in South Africa will run in order to conceal diamonds, it is stated that, on a post-mortem examination being made on a native who died under suspicious circumstances, a sixty carat rough diamond was found in his stomach.

The capital stock of this company is $625,000, divided into 625,000 shares of $1 each.

The company is incorporated under the laws of West Virginia, and the stock is non-assessable, and carries with it no personal liability to the holder.

THE GOLD MINING COMPANY (location, Music Mountains, A. T.,) is as sound a mining enterprise as was ever placed on the market, and its possibilities have never been exceeded. Every share should double in value within a year, and they may quadruple, as they are based on property that would ordinarily have been capitalized ten (10) times as great on account of its known richness and promise.

The shares are made small so that any one can invest. Subscriptions for five shares are as welcome as those for hundreds.

Every dollar of earnings will go to the stockholders in dividends, as there is nothing else that they can be used for.

A Wisewell mill, capacity 20 tons per day, with powerful machinery, has been purchased and will be on the ground ready for erection at the mine within the next thirty days.

The solid basis upon which the company is founded and the practical proofs of the richness of the mine have already secured the confidence of the public, and the stock has steadily advanced in selling value Within the last few days bona fide sales have been made AT PAR.

There is no better stock on the market for a permanent investment. For full information in regard to this Mine apply to the

1888 ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE 1888

The GAZETTE, chronologically, is in the eighty-ninth year of its existence and is no only the oldest paper in the State, but, wit: very few exceptions, in the country. No withstanding the fullness of its years, it has kept, and will continue to keep abreast of the times in all that pertains to a news paper, urnishing its readers daily with a perfect mirror of passing events, domestic and foreign. Its facilities for obtaining news as they increase are taken advantage of and used for the benefit of its readers, who are thus kept thoroughly posted as to all that is of interest politically, socially, financially and commercially. Special attention is given to matters concerning the State and its welfare, while its local columns contain all that is of the slightest interest to Alexandria. Its regular correspondence from Washington and Richmond are features of peculiar interest, as attested by the eager ness with which they are read and copied by other papers, while its editorial depart ment, conducted with reference to the best interests of the city, State and country, wil continue to advocate what is believed to be right, just, honest and patriotic. With a view to the interests of merchants, farm, ers, and all-interested, its commercial col umns are carefully edited and its market reports are acknowledged by all to be faithful and accurate. Through all this section of the State and in all parts of the country where Virginians have located, there will the GAZETTE generally be found, and thus as an advertising medium it has few equals outside the large cities. In the household, counting room and workshop, it is an ever welcome visitor, acceptable alike to old and young, the grave and the gay.
